Provincial Numeracy Assessment

Grade 10 students are scheduled to write their Provincial Numeracy Assessment on Tuesday, April 16th from 8:30 am to 11:45 am.

A schedule of the locations and names of students to write will be posted after spring break, on the wall just left of the office doors. Note that students will be assigned a specific location in the school and MUST go there to write. Please make sure you arrive by 8:30 am to complete login credentials and be ready to start at 8:45 am. Please arrive on time.

If you have not already done so, you may wish to take a look at the BC Grade 10 Numeracy Assessment website for additional information on the format and sample questions HERE.

Evidence-Informed Mental Health Resources

HealthyMindsBC provides evidence-informed prevention and early intervention tools and resources, including online learning opportunities. This site is for parents, caregivers, families, educators and other professionals to help them support the everyday mental health of children and youth. A series of courses that focus on Everyday Anxiety Strategies for Educators (EASE K-7 and 8-12) and Early Years are available. The newest course, Walking Alongside Youth with Anxiety (WAY), is designed to build capacity and support the foster care providers and out-of-care/kinship care providers who are caring for Indigenous and non-Indigenous youth with mild to moderate anxiety.

Safer Schools Together - New dates for erase Family Sessions

Safer Schools Together has new dates for erase Family Sessions. These online sessions focus on social media awareness and online safety and take place in the evenings from 6:30 to 7:30 pm on April 10, and April 16. All parents, caregivers, and students (ages 10 and up) are welcome to attend. share this Trainings can be found at erase Family Sessions.

Royal BC Museum Digital Field Trips & Outreach Kits for Educators (Published 4/2/2024)

The Royal BC Museum's learning department offers learning opportunities for children across the province including live, two-way, interactive digital field trips and outreach kits. Learn about the B.C. Gold Rush, mammoths, spindle whorls, and more by booking a live, interactive virtual learning experience through the Royal BC Museum's digital field trip program. These 30-minute programs are designed to extend students' learning of B.C.'s Natural and Human History, while also connecting to the B.C. Curriculum. Outreach kits bring stories and objects from the museum to the classroom. These free to borrow kits include inquiry based hands-on activities and resources from a wide range of themes including bats, Chinese Canadian historical wrongs, and species at risk. For more information, contact outreach@royalbcmuseum.bc.ca.

Intimate Images Protection Act

The Intimate Images Protection Act (IIPA) provides a pathway to legal action for victims who have had their images distributed without consent. The IIPA supports a new process to have images taken down and seek damages through the Civil Resolution Tribunal (CRT).

A new service, the Intimate Images Protection Service, supports people who have had their intimate images shared, or threatened to be shared, without their consent. The Service provides emotional support, resources, and information about how to get intimate images removed. They can also help with applications to the Civil Resolution Tribunal or other reporting processes. More information can be found on the Take Back Your Images web page, including about requirements for youth reporting.

April is Sikh Heritage Month (link)

Our local Sikh history and excellence is one to be acknowledged and shared. The Education Guide on the Sikh Faith \(link\) is a comprehensive resource to promote the inclusion of Sikh content and perspectives in our schools, while facilitating the awareness of the Sikh Faith and Sikh students in our classrooms and communities. Additionally, you can use these Sikh Heritage Month BC Lesson Plans \(link\) to engage students in Sikh history and excellence. Lesson plans include direct connections to Ministry courses, Big Ideas, and First Peoples' Principles of Learning. In addition, you can download these 2023 Sikh Heritage posters \(link\) to display in your schools and departments. These posters have been created in collaboration with Mun-lene K Sangha \(msangha@sd38.bc.ca \(link\)\), a Richmond teacher, for educators to use throughout our District. A full set of 2024 posters were sent out to each school over spring break. If you did not receive, your posters, please contact Lisa Urata at lurat@sd38.bc.ca \(link\)
