Every student, every day, whatever it takes!

*“Without humility, you are unable to learn”
Albert Einstein*

For the young, old and those in between, humility is the key to continuous learning. Humility allows us to recognise that we don’t know everything; and what we do know, does not necessarily give us wisdom. Instead, we should acknowledge that our information is biased and seek out other sources of wisdom that we lack.

Humility is not about knocking people down and/or dismissing their opinions. Humility is not thinking less of yourself but thinking of yourself less. Humility is not thinking less of what you already know but thinking of what you already know less so that you can seek out new information, knowledge, and wisdom.

And when we seek out information, knowledge, and wisdom...we must remember they have an expiry date and the three are not the same. Information is not knowledge, knowledge is not wisdom and wisdom is useless without action. Keep in mind wisdom is the most important to seek out because it the “why” of things we do. Information is the “what” and knowledge is “how.” All three have expiry dates and must be renewed.

If “necessity” is the mother of invention, then “humility” is its father...for humility encourages us to seek out better ways and not rely on what we already know and what we already do.

The manifestation of humility within us helps us recognize “education” has no end state but rather is an approach to the acquisition of information, knowledge and wisdom that must be continuously renewed for the benefit of individuals, and more importantly for the benefit of society.

At Cambie we are “Champions for students!”

RAISING THE BAR – Set New Goals for Quarter 4

As we enter the final quarter of the school year, all students have the opportunity to set new goals. We continue to challenge students to set high expectations for themselves and then to demonstrate determination to striving for these goals. Setting goals is a good way to help you reflect on what’s important to you, clear your mind, and focus on who you want to become.

CAMBIE COMMONS – After School Support Quarter 4

The Cambie Commons is open after school every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday for extra student support. This is a great way for students to get some extra support

Richmond Reading Riot

Once again, the Cambie Library is pleased to participate in the Richmond Reading Riot. The contest runs up to 30th of April. It is easy to join! Read as many of the designated 9 books as you can. After you finish each book, fill out a ballot in the library. Every Friday, a ballot is drawn, and one participant wins a prize, so come and join in on the fun!
